SCRIPTURE READINGS

Acts 10:44-48

While Peter was still speaking, the Holy Spirit fell upon all who heard the word. The circumcised believers who had come with Peter were astounded that the gift of the Holy Spirit had been poured out even on the Gentiles, for they heard them speaking in tongues and extolling God. Then Peter said, "Can anyone withhold the water for baptizing these people who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" So he ordered them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they invited him to stay for several days.

John 15:12-17

"This is my commandment, that you love one another as I have loved you. No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends. You are my friends if you do what I command you. I do not call you servants any longer, because the servant does not know what the master is doing; but I have called you friends, because I have made known to you everything that I have heard from my Father. You did not choose me but I chose you. And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last, so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name. I am giving you these commands so that you may love one another.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION(in unison)

Lord, you challenge us to "love on another as I have loved you" and we fail miserably to love our families, our friends, our neighbors, our enemies. You appoint us to "go and bear fruit, fruit that will last" and we pick the best fruit for ourselves and fail to reach out and share with others. You tell us that God will give us "whatever you ask in God's name" but we selfishly ask for more than we need and for that which is harmful to our spiritual journey. So we come now, at this moment, to you in our silent prayers of confession. Hear us, O Lord, and have mercy upon us...

Our Silent Personal Prayers of Confession

* DECLARATION OF PARDON

Leader: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven.

World without end. Amen. Amen.
